

Logistics Manager 1

Job summary

Logistics Manager oversees and coordinates key aspects of logistics in the company. Collaborate with the sales team and customer service team to ensure supplies are stocked and delivered to customers promptly. Implement and maintain operating policies on general logistics and product procedures. Optimize and maintain inventory based on demand and supply chain activities. Key aspects of logistics and inventory management ensure cost-optimized use of internal and external warehouses.

Responsibilities

Maximize cost savings and minimize product shortages and wrong shipments

Develop, analyze, and maintain materials requirements planning and customer forecasts

Collaborate with sales and customer operations team for planning and execution of supplier orders and related management

Refine workflow and offer recommendations to improve productivity, quality, and efficiency of operations

Manage movement, storage, and processing of vendor-managed inventory, provide weekly inventory reports to customer operations

Provide weekly sales report to product and sales team

Arrange shipments with suppliers and freight forwarders, develop effective operating relationships with strategic suppliers, then manage on-time delivery

Supervisor Supply Chain Specialist team which requires mentoring, coaching, conducting reviews, setting up KPIs for the team, and setting up metrics

Requirements

Bachelor's degree preferred

4+ years experience in customer service or logistics management is a must

4+ years experience in Administrative Support

Leadership/Management experience

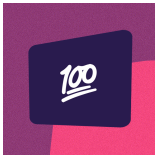

Excellent communication and problem-solving skills

Experience with 3PL or Third PL

Proficient and experienced with ERP systems

Inventory maintenance experience a plus, SAP/Sales Force Experience is a plus

Logistics Manager 2

Job summary

The Logistics Manager is responsible for the oversight of the daily functions of warehousing, logistics, and packaging development within the supply chain. This position oversees the day-to-day links between nodes of the supply chain. As a result, the Logistics Manager drives efficiencies within the supply chain through logistics sourcing and monitoring, rate negotiation, warehouse optimization, packaging, etc.

Responsibilities

Owner of warehousing, logistics, and packaging experience and optimization within the supply chain, including but not limited to rate negotiation, vendor performance, costing, etc.

Oversight of logistics vendor issues, coordination of expediting needs of plants, and new route set-up/development within the supply chain.

Oversight of packaging development, testing, and approvals amongst the supply chain.

Owner of creating Distribution and Logistics costing targets as requested by Business Development, Costing/Forecasting, and Finance teams.

Manage and report warehousing, logistics & distribution KPIs, such as Logistics Spend, On Time Delivery, Load Efficiency, Expedite Costs, etc., against targets in monthly departmental meetings, or upon request.

Establish corrective actions for underperforming metrics to ensure performance standards are met.

Review and approval of warehousing, logistics, and packaging invoices while overseeing invoice coding for relevant vendors.

Responsible for the day-to-day activities of local warehousing functions, and external warehousing suppliers including conducting physical inventory counts.

Requirements

Bachelor's Degree or equivalent preferred

3 or more year's related experience; or equivalent combination of education and experience.

Packaging Engineering background, a plus

APICS certification(s), a plus.

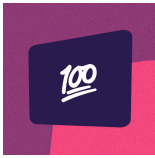

Experience demonstrating effective leadership, directly or in-directly, for multi-disciplinary teams is required.

Work requires at least 3 years of related experience and/or training; or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

Demonstrated vendor management experience in warehousing and transportation across inbound, outbound, and reverse logistics.

Work requires strong oral and written communication skills

Work requires a strong knowledge level of Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint

Work requires working knowledge and experience with ERP and WMS systems.

Work requires knowledge of current SCM techniques and processes.

Logistics Manager 3

Job summary

Logistics Manager is responsible for managing drivers, messengers and guards, and operations outside the facility. The incumbent drives the execution of the business and motivates team members to achieve the best results and to drive continuous process improvement.

Responsibilities

Provide first-line supervision to Logistics team members at one of the market locations

Ensure route logistics efficiency through appropriate interaction with market employees and route analysis

Maintain a safe and secure environment to ensure that all Logistics employees work and return home safely

Leverage systems, equipment, and process redesign to drive continuous improvement in cost, quality, and efficiency

Maintain and provide quality customer service

Secure inventories by executing controls and ensuring strict compliance with security procedures; proactively reduce risk exposure and ensure implementation of measures to reduce worker's compensation injury costs and security losses

Establish and maintain accountability on the front line of the market; schedule and develop staff; maintain positive

Employee Relations and work environment, while creating a cooperative team atmosphere of employee engagement

Requirements

Minimum of 3 years of operations experience in transportation and/or logistics

Minimum of 1 year supervisory experience

Satisfy all applicable Department of Transportation requirements

Minimum of 21 years of age

Able to lift at least 50 pounds

Knowledge of route analysis and logistics

Knowledge of lean/process improvement methodologies

Knowledge of budgeting and planning experience

Bachelor's Degree

Strong consultative, analytical, and problem-solving skills

Excellent interpersonal/communication and presentation skills

Logistics Manager 4

Job summary

As the Logistics Manager, you will be responsible for handling the customer experience and establishing a strategic direction and plan for customer account growth within the company.

Responsibilities

Provide dedicated account management support in several areas, including issue resolution, financial performance, adherence to contract terms, and solution design and pricing

Manage customer expectations and provide recommendations for strategic initiatives

Handle the contracts for assigned accounts as well as all account-driven activities

Develop short-term and long-range plans and goals for the organization

Ensure attainment of annual profit, efficiency, and quality goals at each client engagement

Direct capital expenditure and asset deployment activities

Requirements

4 years of relevant experience

Confirmed logistics or supply chain management experience

Superior knowledge of the supply chain vertical

Project management experience

Bachelor's degree in a related field or equivalent work or military experience

Strong written and verbal communication skills

Ability to build and maintain effective, reciprocal work relationships within and outside of the company

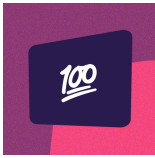

Excellent creative thinking and problem-solving skills; able to be conclusive, results-oriented, and strategic in thinking and approach

Logistics Manager 5

Job summary

The Logistics Manager is the leader of operations within his/her region. The position acts as the primary responsibility for all strategy, operations, target setting, KPI achievement, and the P+L owner within the assigned region.

Responsibilities

Plans, coordinates, and supervises the operations section of the division

Supervises FSL/ P&L with focus on Accounts Receivable and current file status. Responsible for managing accounts payable exceptions

Identifies and coordinates any required training or resources essential for the operations section to function.

Implements guidance regarding ethical behavior and anti-fraud activities throughout the division.

Provides direct input to the Road Logistics Management on all aspects of the organization's strengths and weaknesses.

Reviews existing processes on an ongoing basis to identify ineffective tasks where productivity can be increased in either the division or supported branches.

Other duties as considered necessary.

Requirements

Bachelor's degree in Business or equivalent experience

Requires a minimum of 5-6 years of logistics sales experience

Experience with Logistics processes, systems, and solutions

Seasoned listening skills

Good analytical skills

Demonstrated problem-solving and negotiation skills.

Demonstrated attention to detail

Strong verbal and written communication and presentation skills. Able to speak persuasively in positive or negative situations. Self-disciplined, strong leadership and motivational ability

Be a results-oriented team player

Knowledge of Microsoft Office applications

Logistics Manager 6

Job summary

Logistics Manager is responsible for regularly managing and directing the work of a team of Drivers, Dispatchers, Coordinators, Analysts, Logistics Associates, or other positions deemed necessary in performing the Transportation related operational functions within a designated territory.

Responsibilities

Directly manage territory Drivers including performance development, scheduling, and training, etc.

Ensures positive associate engagement and associate development through timely and effective feedback, including individual meetings, file reviews, performance management, and the Annual Performance Review (APR) process

Problem solve and exercise judgment to make modifications to daily routes to accommodate the needs of customers

Directly manage regional fleet drivers including fleet safety within the region

Achieve daily KPI metrics

Develop delivery routes and maintain contact with drivers throughout the day by answering incoming calls

Cultivate strong relationships with drivers and customers

Monitor route changes or road construction issues and work with drivers to establish new routes for timely deliveries

Utilize reports, analyze information, and monitor trends to identify opportunities in the territory

Monitors standard reporting for their territory to determine the priority level of moves.

Communicate to key stakeholders all pertinent information captured after all store visits, conference calls, work groups, and team meetings.

Partners across Merchandising, Operations, & Sales to produce daily ship plan with staffing targets

Partner with third-party vendors to provide fleet coverage as needed

Manage daily hub operations which includes coordination of shipping and receiving

Partner with Senior store leadership to address operational constraints

Responsible for maintenance and repairs for all fleet equipment including scheduling and partnering with lease vendors

Displays financial responsibility

Requirements

Previous management experience with retail management preferred

Bachelor's Degree a plus

Intermediate PC skills

Strong communication skills required (both oral and written) to act as the principal point of contact for the department

Strong mathematical skills are required to perform rate evaluations and to evaluate total transportation expenditures

Strong ability to evaluate and negotiate all related department decisions while establishing lane rates, delivery time frames, and acceptable timelines for dispatching

Logistics Manager 7

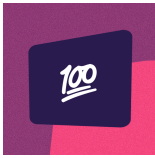

Job summary

We're currently looking to hire a Logistics Manager to join our fast-growing team! The position requires many general skills, heavy lifting, light clerical work, customer service, and lots of creativity.

Responsibilities

Oversee and assist with receiving and installing of product, shipping, crating and delivery, set up and installations

Supervise, coordinate and provide leadership to the warehouse

staff

Maintain receiving and distribution operations by initiating, coordinating, and enforcing policies and procedures

Safeguard warehouse operations and contents by establishing and monitoring security procedures and protocols

Control inventory levels by conducting physical counts and reconciling with the data storage system

Maintain the physical condition of the warehouse and inspect all equipment

Complete warehouse operational requirements by scheduling and assigning employees; follow up on work results

Requirements

Ability to lift heavy weights over 60 lbs. and use pallet jacks and/or heavy machinery

Must be organized, reliable, and responsible with a positive can-do attitude

Must be able to drive a fork-lift, handle heavy/fragile products carefully and have a sharp, detailed eye

Some experience is necessary

Logistics Manager 8

Job summary

We are looking for a Logistics Manager with at least 3-5 years of managerial or supervisory experience and someone who has a strong customer service background. Someone who thrives in a fast-paced environment and is strategic and tactical. Excellent verbal and written expression is essential, as well as, attention to detail.

Responsibilities

Manage a team to oversee all operations of the department

Resolve high-priority and complex problems through communication with clients

Communicate with various vendors and departments on the status of payroll packages, including information related to payroll packages

Monitor the status of all out-going shipments for the organization

Maintain data records related to all payroll shipments

Respond to department inquiries regarding shipments and refer issues to appropriate personnel

Ensure quality of service and processes within the logistics department

Maintain a process for gathering, recording, and overseeing relevant department documents

Maintain a process for scanning and storing documents within DMS, including reviewing documents to check for accuracy

Maintain a process for categorizing electronic documents according to the set procedure

Coordinate regularly with management to review processes for changes, taking into consideration input from management, deadlines, and other issues

Develops and mentors staff and coaches and counsel when needed

Other duties assigned

Requirements

High School Diploma

College Degree preferred

Administrative Experience

Logistics Manager 9

Job summary

The selected candidate will be responsible for managing all aspects of the Logistics Group including the tool room attendants, transportation personnel, and administrative personnel.

Responsibilities

Responsible for the identification of material, purchasing, receiving, storage, and delivery to the worksite.

Responsible for the coordination between logistics and Production Managers to identify issues and meet on-time delivery of needed material.

Responsible for maintaining a company warehouse, and coordination with facilities personnel for warehouse upkeep.

Assist in the writing of Statements of Work for vendors and sub-contractors.

Provide reports to update Production personnel and other Managerial personnel.

Requirements

Must have prior experience working with logistical systems

Must have experience providing reports/orders to various vendors

Must have experience with Microsoft Office products, specifically Word and Excel

Must be able to go shipboard, and work in an industrial environment as necessary

Must be able to qualify to drive a company vehicle

Prior managerial experience desired

Ability to read blueprints desired

Logistics Manager 10

Job summary

We are currently seeking a Logistics Manager. This position is responsible for the planning, scheduling, budgeting, and utilization of the car fleet. The position's main focus is to improve utilization and streamline operations through efficient logistics.

Responsibilities

Logistics program management and communication

Long/short-range equipment planning, scheduling, and budgeting

Work with the trade compliance team on large, complex cross border equipment moves

Understand and comply with all federal, state, and company health, safety, and environmental requirements

Inspections & procurement of equipment and parts

Assisting projects in planning for critical lifts and crane selection

Establish and maintain communications between all levels of supervision and management

Specialty projects as needed

Requirements

5+ years of experience with equipment planning, scheduling, and budgeting is preferred

Ability to communicate effectively at all levels of region, district, project management, staff, and craft

Strong work ethic – willing to do what it takes to get the job done

Strong organizational, time management, and communication skills

Strong attention to detail and ability to focus on multiple projects at once while prioritizing tasks

Willingness & ability to travel in the U.S. and internationally as required

Willingness & ability to work in both office and field environments