

Safety Manager 1

Job summary

The Safety Manager will report directly to the Plant Manager and help to implement, train and ensure compliance with governmental regulations and industry standards. The Safety Manager will be responsible for building and maintaining and promoting a health and safety culture.

Responsibilities

Implement, train on, and maintain the Process Safety Management program.

Ensure compliance with governmental regulations and industry standards.

Report on the status of safety, process safety, and security incidents to plant management, perform investigations related to these incidents, draft investigation reports, and coordinate the development of corrective actions based upon investigation.

Develop, implement, and provide safety, process safety, and security training.

Maintain a current training matrix and report on any deficiencies or identified gaps in the training program.

Conduct weekly training and presentations for health and safety matters and accident prevention.

Review and update procedures, as necessary, to reflect current operations and regulatory compliance.

Monitor compliance with procedures and policies by observing employees and operations to promote a culture of health and safety.

Investigate accidents or incidents to discover root causes and handle worker's compensation claims.

Recommend solutions to issues, improvement opportunities, or new prevention measures.

Report on health and safety awareness, issues, and statistics.

Requirements

Proven experience as a Safety Manager

BSc/BA in safety management or a relevant field is preferred

Deep understanding of PSM, health, and safety regulations

Good knowledge of data analysis and risk assessment

Excellent organizational and motivational skills

Outstanding attention to detail and observation ability

Exceptional communication and interpersonal abilities

Must have excellent verbal and written communication skills and experience working with all levels of employees

Must be experienced in working with outside contractors

Proficient in MS Office

Safety Manager 2

Job summary

A manufacturing company is looking for a Safety Manager for the plant. The primary responsibilities of the Safety Manager will be to direct, enforce and improve upon compliance with all regulatory, security, workers comp, and property/casualty insurance matters. Developing and managing safety programs policies and procedures will be a top priority as safety is this company's #1 priority.

Responsibilities

- Conduct Audits to identify safety hazards and implement corrective measures
- Create and review SOPs and work instructions related to safety organize and oversee all safety training for machinery and equipment hold weekly and monthly safety meetings for supervisors and managers
- Ensure compliance with corporate regulatory schedule analyze injury and illness data and recommend corrective action
- Assist inspection personnel from regulatory agencies
- Compile data for monthly incident summary reports
- Maintain OSHA documents
- Recommend and budget for safety capital expenditure items

Requirements

- B.S. Degree in Safety Management or related preferred
- 3-5 years of safety management experience in a manufacturing environment
- Excellent written and oral and presentation communication skills
- Extensive knowledge of OSHA, EPA, and other government regulatory agencies

Safety Manager 3

Job summary

The Safety Manager reduces work-related injuries by continuously improving the safety management system and leading cultural change by demonstrating exceptional leadership and engaging employees on all levels.

Responsibilities

- Evaluating the safety management system for its effectiveness and maintaining documented continuous improvement plans to improve performance.

Engaging and directing the leadership staff in their safety roles and responsibilities. Effectively communicating what the safety responsibilities are for their direct reports and how their activities impact safety performance.

Engaging the entire workforce both salary and hourly to drive cultural change and accomplish safety performance objectives and targets.

Performing incident investigations using an 8D (disciplined) process, with a focus on the root cause, corrective and preventive actions, and verification.

Providing effective training for all safety programs including but not limited to Lockout/tagout, machine guarding, fall protection, powered industrial vehicle, hazard communication, personal protective equipment, electrical safety, confined space, respiratory protection, and walking and working surfaces.

Developing and implementing motivational and incentive programs that promote a high degree of safety awareness and enthusiasm.

Establishing safety performance metrics, both leading and lagging indicators.

Ensure that behavior-based observation programs are effectively implemented.

Performing or ensuring compliance with industrial hygiene testing and other requirements.

Reviewing planned changes and new equipment before receipt. Approves or recommends changes in manufacturing engineering matters of plant layout, location/relocation of machinery, equipment, facilities, safety designs, and processes.

Requirements

Bachelor's degree in an appropriate field of study with five (5) to seven (7) years of experience in a safety-related field.

In the absence of a four (4) year degree in an appropriate field of study, this position requires an additional eight (5) years of related experience and the appropriate safety certifications in regulatory, management systems, and training programs.

Must be proficient in Microsoft Applications including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint) as well as Internet software and E-mail required.

The employee is occasionally required to lift up to 50 pounds.

Safety Manager 4

Job summary

Our manufacturing company has an immediate opening for a Safety Manager. This Safety Manager will be responsible for ensuring compliance with all environmental, health, and safety regulations.

Responsibilities

Assist management with the implementation and updates of all EHS programs, policies, and procedures.

Create and maintain all federal, state, and local EHS reports including OSHA 300, Accident Reports, etc.

Plan, develop, implement, and conduct safety training for new employee orientation and annual required programs. Inspect facilities to detect existing or potential accidents and health hazards, determine corrective or preventative measures where indicated, and follow up to ensure measures have been implemented.

Requirements

Bachelor's Degree in Safety or related field.

Safety, Environmental, and Health experience required.

Manufacturing management experience within Safety, Environmental & Health.

Able to lead, coordinate and communicate effectively with others.

Accomplish tasks with only general supervision and guidance.

Safety Manager 5

Job summary

We are looking for a Safety Manager who will be overseeing tracking safety and the metrics that go along with it in the warehouse.

Responsibilities

Assist line and warehouse management to understand OSHA compliance, inspections, and citations.

Work with government agencies such as OSHA to resolve complaints

Evaluate hazardous conditions and practices and develops hazard control practices and programs.

Track all accident and incidents in for OSHA, DART and BLS purposes.

Oversees all equipment certifications and re-certifications, issues badges and update in HRB.

Regularly reviews safety and Health program to stay compliant and keep employees unformed.

Requirements

Bachelor's Degree in a related field

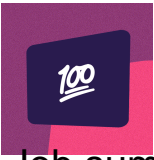

5-7 Years of experience in a manufacturing setting in the safety and metrics department

Must have strong knowledge of overseeing company accident statistics and makes recommendations for correction of problem areas

Must be able to work in a noisy and dusty environment

Safety Manager 6

Job summary

This position is responsible for developing and maintaining an employee relations climate that creates and permits a stable and productive workforce. The Safety Manager manages and coordinates all functions of employee relations, including employment, labor relations, compensation and benefits services, manpower planning, training and development, safety, security, and workers' compensation for compliance with federal and state regulations.

Responsibilities

- New hire training and orientation
- Safety and First-Aid Training for Employees and Supervisors
- Safety program implementation
- Safety reporting
- Investigate safety incidents and recommend corrective action
- Attract qualified candidates that reflect community diversity
- Coordinate assessment testing of qualified candidates
- Conduct interviews and train supervisors in proper interviewing
- Complete required physical and background checks on all candidates
- Conduct orientation of new hires
- Maintain non-union status
- Participate in the development and implementation of Employee Opinion Action Plans
- Advise supervisors on appropriate disciplinary actions
- Encourage recognition of employee accomplishments
- Represent employees' views and needs to management
- Manage hourly payroll system
- Ensure compliance with federal, state, and local employment laws, as well as Corporate and plant policies and procedures
- Provide training to employees on benefit programs and assist employees with the resolution of insurance-related issues
- Assist plant management in the training of employees for specific jobs ensuring that employees are competent in their key area of responsibilities

Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree preferred, preferably in Human Resources Management, or equivalent work experience.
- 5 years of Human Resources experience in a manufacturing environment.
- Minimum 3 years of safety and health management experience in a manufacturing environment with working knowledge of OSHA compliance and training requirements.
- Working knowledge of state employment law.

Excellent communication and group presentation skills.

Experience in conducting training programs.

Strong computer skills (Microsoft Office).

PHR/SPHR certification a plus.

Safety Manager 7

Job summary

The Safety Manager supports the facility in the design, management, and implementation of our comprehensive Health and Safety programs and provides direction to all levels within the plant regarding appropriate Health and Safety practices. Plans implement, evaluates, and communicates safety initiatives that meet and exceed regulatory requirements.

Responsibilities

Creates supports and implements strategies to establish and improve safety compliance.

Supports site safety management systems.

Educates employees in proper safety procedures, safe work practices, and policies.

Develops, evaluates, and recommends process and equipment changes and improvements to maximize safety and improve the environmental impacts of operations.

Administers, monitors, and audits safety and health programs to ensure OSHA compliance. Completes annual review of each program. Assists with injury/illness prevention and correction.

Leads proactive efforts in air monitoring to ensure compliance with standard practices.

Conducts root cause analyses and preventative/corrective action follow-up.

Conducts job hazard analysis for ergonomic improvements and soft tissue injury prevention.

Monitors and reviews accident investigation reports and ensures appropriate follow-up; participate in claim reviews, mediations, and hearings; reviews workers' compensation costs and monitors claims.

Requirements

Bachelor's degree (B. A.) in Safety Management or related field from a regionally accredited four-year college or university and 3+ years' relevant experience; or equivalent combination of education and experience.

Experience working with or knowledge of OSHA; with prior experience in the food industry a plus.

Ability to write reports, business correspondence, and procedure manuals.

Excellent oral and written communication skills.

Excellent organizational skills and the ability to manage several projects simultaneously.

Ability to anticipate needs, forecast conditions, set goals/standards, and measure results.

Ability to work well with others in a fast-paced, dynamic environment.

Ability to be respectful, approachable, and team-oriented while building strong working relationships and a positive work environment.

Bilingual, preferred.

Safety Manager 8

Job summary

The Safety Manager is responsible for the safety performance and safety development of their assigned business units and direct reports. This individual is a safety resource at the project, business unit, and corporate levels. This individual regularly assesses the safety needs of their assigned business units or projects and utilizes their assigned resources to meet those needs. This individual also participates in developing corporate safety programs and safety cultures.

Responsibilities

Manage direct report workloads based on project volume, project need, and additional department responsibilities and make staffing recommendations accordingly

Conduct regular check-ins and yearly performance evaluations for all direct reports

Assess training and learning needs for direct reports

Train and support Safety Department members as needed

Review career path goals with team members, providing feedback on career development

Participate in the retention and recruiting of Safety Department team members

Manage outside consultant project needs and performance

Requirements

Bachelor's degree in safety or related field preferred

CHST, CSP, or equivalent professional safety designation

First Aid/CPR certification

OSHA 500 preferred

Degree and five years of experience or eight or more years of safety experience. Other professional experience/skills may act as a substitute

Safety Manager 9

Job summary

We are seeking a Safety Manager responsible for implementing at a site/facility or within various safety disciplines, including managing staff. Ensures facilities and projects comply with applicable laws, rules, policies, and procedures regulating radiation safety. Compiles compliance reports and oversees regulatory recordkeeping and submission of reports to regulatory agencies.

Responsibilities

Provides oversight, direction, and training to organization staff to ensure all safety activities related to a site, program, project, function, and/or facility process(es) are conducted in compliance with established rules, regulations, policies, and procedures and to ensure high-quality products and services for customers.

Manages various safety disciplines such as radiological engineering, dosimetry, instrumentation, waste management, and health physics.

Manages the development and implementation of training programs for staff on technical compliance procedures.

Ensures compliance with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations about facility operations.

Provides training for safety staff to ensure compliance with safety procedures.

Requirements

Bachelor's degree required in a scientific discipline or equivalent experience

Certified Health Physicist (CHP) preferred

Federal or agreement state regulatory approval may be required

A minimum of 8 years of experience in operational health physics

A minimum of 3 years of supervisory experience in operational health physics

Safety Manager 10

Job summary

We are looking for an experienced Safety Manager.

Responsibilities

Identifies any legal requirements that are specific to their business unit.

Ensures that all incidents that occur within the business unit are managed by the Incident Management process and that external regulatory reporting is conducted.

Works with operations to ensure the necessary skills and competencies of all sub-contractors working at project sites in their business unit.

Requirements

Bachelor's degree in Safety Sciences preferred.

Working towards CHST, ASP, CSP, or CRSP.

Ability to train OSHA 30.

Current First Aid and CPR certifications.

Detailed knowledge of all federal, state, and local company regulations.